*W*hen you step inside the gates of Wainwright House, you know you have arrived at a special place; a place of harmony, a sacred place for the exploration of life and the healing of the mind, body and spirit. Set on five rolling acres overlooking Milton Harbor, Wainwright House is the best kept secret in Westchester. The estate was given in 1951 by Fonrose Wainwright Condict to serve a greater cause. Wainwright House is the oldest, non-profit, holistic educational center in the United States. For over 50 years, groups and individuals from diverse perspectives have come together on its special grounds and in its buildings to exchange ideas. Today, Wainwright House continues to offer a variety of educational, cultural and spiritual programs, as well as a beautiful setting for group and personal celebrations.

THE Perfect Setting

Nestled among exquisite gardens, trees and lawns lies a perfect jewel: a recreation of a 17th century chateau. Over seventy-five years ago, Colonel Jonathan Mayhew Wainwright fell in love with the chateau de Raincheval in France. Back in New York, he built a perfect replica for his family and friends. The result is an incredibly beautiful stone mansion overlooking the water, complete with lovely sunsets.

Today, Wainwright House plays host to a variety of social and corporate events. The mansion offers two formal dining rooms, a library, four bedrooms and a number of conference room options.
